DESCRIPTION: Offender Management	REVIEW MONTH: December	 KELLIE WASKO SECRETARY OF CORRECTIONS

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the South Dakota Department of Corrections (DOC) to establish procedures for operating religious and cultural programs within adult South Dakota Department of Corrections institutions.

II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines and consistent standards for the practice of recognized faith groups. It is also the purpose of this policy to ensure that offenders have the opportunity to participate in practices of their religious faith that are deemed essential by the faith's judicatory, limited only by documentation showing threat to the safety of persons involved in such activity, or that the activity itself disrupts order in the institution [ACA 5-ACI-7F-05]. Faith-based programs/observances will be accommodated, within available time and space, unless an overriding compelling governmental interest exists. Offenders will not be subjected to coercion, harassment, or ridicule due to their religious affiliation.

III. DEFINITIONS

Cultural Activities Coordinator (CAC):

The designated DOC staff member from each facility who serves as the volunteer services program coordinator for cultural, religious, and leisure activities and programs offered to offenders at the facility. This person is responsible for volunteer recruitment, maintaining volunteer records, compliance with required volunteer forms, and coordinating training for volunteers.

Cultural Activity:

Conducted under the auspices of the cultural activities coordinator (CAC) and designed specifically for instruction or to further the purpose of a cultural group.

Cultural Group:

Any group that is not religious in nature which promotes educational, social, cultural, or recreational interests of participating offenders.

Religion and Religious Activities:

A religion, religious denomination, or sect supported by literature stating religious principles and recognized by a group of persons who share common ethical, cultural, moral, or intellectual views which are not defamatory, racial, political, or derisive in nature. Permissible religious practices are practices of that religion for the purpose of worship, devotion, instruction, and spiritual development which are not contrary to the legitimate penological interests of the DOC.

Religious Activities Councils and Committees:

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 2 of 3

Organizations may be established to provide advice, counseling, and guidance for institutional religious activities. Organizations must conform to established DOC policies and directives and shall be coordinated by the cultural activities coordinator. Organizations may develop specific directions or bylaws as necessary for their respective functions.

Religious Program Committee (RPC):

A committee at each institution comprised of members of DOC senior staff along with the cultural activities coordinator and volunteer representatives. The committee generally meets quarterly to review project applications and requests that are religious or cultural in nature.

IV. PROCEDURES

1. General:

- A. Upon admission to the DOC, offenders will have an opportunity to designate their religion. Offenders wishing to change their religious preference during their incarceration must complete a Change of Religious Affiliation form (attachment #2) and send the completed form to the cultural activities coordinator (CAC). Religious affiliation may be changed once every 12 months. The chaplain or designated staff develops and maintains close relationships with community religious resources [ACA 5-ACI 7F-04].
- B. Religious denomination and tribal affiliation are documented on the booking summary.
- C. Offenders may request to visit with a religious volunteer for the purpose of receiving spiritual counseling. Requests shall be in the form of a kite sent to the CAC. When a religious leader of an offender's faith is not represented through the chaplaincy staff or volunteers, the chaplain or designated staff member assists the offender in contacting a person who has the appropriate credentials from the faith judicatory. That person ministers to the offender under the supervision of the chaplain [ACA 5-ACI 7F-06].
- D. Volunteers may access facilities for the purpose of providing spiritual counseling, as authorized by the warden or designee.
 1. The CAC will promptly respond to the offender's request. If approved, the respective religious volunteer will be notified of the request. The CAC may assist in arranging the meeting between the offender and volunteer.
- E. The CAC's responsibilities related to offender religious or cultural property include:
 1. Reviewing orders submitted by offenders for approved offender religious or cultural property, including property purchased for a group through the group account. Once the order has been approved, this shall be forwarded to offender banking staff for processing from the offender's spend account or from the offender group account.
 - a. The CAC will review the order to ensure all items requested are approved and the order is with an approved vendor before forwarding the request to Offender Banking for processing. A stamped envelope is required.
 - b. All property sent to the facility will be inspected by property staff prior to approval for admittance into the institution. Approved items are delivered to the CAC for secure storage in the group's designated property location. Questions regarding religious or cultural property shall be directed to the CAC.
 - c. All donated religious items must come from an approved vendor with the exception of donated meat.
 - 1) All donated meat must be approved by the CAC prior to the donation.

2. Religious and Cultural Activities:

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 3 of 4
Offender Management	Offender Religious and Cultural Activities	500-07	Effective: 02/01/2025

- A. Written policy, procedure, and practice require that the institution provide space and equipment adequate for the conduct and administration of religious programs. The institution makes available non-offender clerical staff for confidential material [ACA 5-ACI 7F-07].
- B. Religious and cultural activities provided within a DOC institution will be performed in compliance with the following rules:
1. Offender attendance at any religious and cultural activity shall be voluntary.
 2. The CAC will coordinate religious and cultural activities with the institutions programming and activity schedule, in cooperation with other offered programs to minimize scheduling conflicts and to ensure adequate staff supervision.
 3. Offender religious and cultural activities will be conducted in designated locations within the institution. Offenders attending activities must be supervised by security staff.
 4. Offenders attending religious and cultural functions will be sensitive to other groups who may be meeting in the same area and will conduct themselves in a respectful manner.
 5. Outside guests/visitors or red tag volunteers may not be left unsupervised during religious or cultural functions and may not independently supervise offender activities. A DOC staff member must always be present to provide direct supervision of the activity, including attending offenders and visitors.
- C. Religious and cultural activities, councils, and committees may be organized to provide counseling and guidance to offenders. Such organizations must conform to established DOC policies and directives. All organizations shall be supervised by the CAC. Organizations may develop specific directions or bylaws as necessary for their respective functions. These are subject to approval by the CAC.
- D. For changes to existing religious or cultural group accommodations (e.g., property, ceremonies, events, frequency, time/day), the request shall include a thorough description of the proposed change and justification for the change. All requests for new accommodations (e.g., holidays, food, property), must be submitted at least ninety (90) days in advance of the desired implementation date. Exceptions may only be made with a recommendation from the CAC and the approval of the warden.
- E. The CAC will review the information and, if necessary, request clarification or additional information from the offender(s) or community resource.
- F. The CAC will present the request and accompanying documentation to the Religious Programming Committee (RPC) for review. The RPC shall recommend the request be approved or denied. The CAC will inform the offender in writing of the decision. If the offender disagrees with the decision, he/she may initiate the grievance process.

3. Offender Access to Religious or Cultural Activities:

- A. Offenders must sign up for each activity. An activity is considered the regular meeting of the religious group, which is typically held weekly or biweekly. Offenders may not sign-up other offenders.
- B. If an offender misses two (2) consecutive religious activities they signed up for, their name may be removed from the respective activity sign-up list they have missed for up to thirty (30) days. After thirty (30) days, the offender will once again be eligible to sign up for the specific religious activity they had previously been restricted from. If an offender is placed on a thirty (30) day restriction, it does not preclude them from signing up to attend an activity for a different religious group, nor does this preclude offenders from practicing their faith individually, within their room/cell/bunk area.
- C. Offenders must be properly dressed for the activity, in accordance with the offender dress code.

SECTION	SUBJECT	DOC POLICY	Page 4 of 5
Offender Management	Offender Religious and Cultural Activities	500-07	Effective: 02/01/2025

- D. When an activity has concluded, all offenders must directly return to their housing unit. If an offender is found loitering, they may be subject to disciplinary action.
- E. Lights must remain on in the room where the religious or cultural activity is taking place.
- F. Offenders on cell restriction are only permitted to attend one (1) religious activity per week.
- G. Offenders on cell restriction are not permitted to attend any cultural activities unless an exception is granted by the CAC.
- H. Offender religious and cultural activities shall not conflict with the legitimate penological interests of the DOC or pose a risk to safety and security. Activities may be temporarily suspended by the warden. Offenders may continue to practice their faith individually, within their room/cell/bunk area.

4. Baptism, Communion, and Other Sacramental Rituals:

- A. Baptism services may be offered by appropriately credentialed individuals at the institution, if approved in advance by the warden or designee. Normally this is limited to volunteers. Requests shall be routed first to the CAC, who shall consult with the warden or designee.
- B. Communion services may be conducted on a regular basis.
- C. Requests for other sacramental rituals will be forwarded to the CAC, who will consult with the warden or designee.

5. Group Religious and Cultural Activities:

- A. Approved activities will be scheduled with reasonable frequency, based on the availability of space, time, and staff supervision. The chaplain, in cooperation with the institutional administrator or designee, approves donations of equipment or materials for use in religious programs [ACA 5-ACI 7F-08]. Any materials a volunteer wishes to provide to offenders for their personal use during and after the religious activities, such as books, programs, pamphlets, etc. must be sent directly to the CAC at least two (2) weeks prior to their intended use for inspection and approval.
- B. To the extent possible, each approved group will receive comparable time and space for programming, including one weekly worship opportunity and opportunities to observe religious/cultural holidays/days of significance, as approved by the CAC. In addition, each group may be afforded time for organized group study as approved by the CAC.
- C. An approved group may conduct worship or study in a designated area, at a designated time, without a volunteer present. However, DOC staff must be available to supervise the group.
- D. General population offenders will be provided the opportunity to attend religious or cultural activities or programming, unless the offender's presence creates a disruption, or threatens the safety or good order of the institution; or the offender is currently serving a punitive sanction which restricts access to attend such activities or programming, such as room restriction or placement on restrictive housing status. Offenders on admission and orientation (A&O) status may be excluded until they are assigned to general population.
- E. Offenders on special housing status may request written religious educational material from the CAC.
- F. The CAC will offer multiple opportunities for religious activities, cultural activities, and programming.
